

On the occasion of the International Women's Day on 8th March 2018, the Faculty of Behavioural Sciences, Women's studies centre and The Faculty of Education organized an expert lecture by Prof. Anjali Gandhi, an internationally renowned social worker and academician who has earlier served as Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences, as well as Head of Department of Social Work at the Jamia Milia Islamia University. Prof. Anjali Gandhi delivered the expert lecture and focused on gender as a social construct. She stressed on the importance of men and women working in tandem so as to make the life more pleasant and fruitful.

The event can also be accessed through social media link:

<https://www.facebook.com/sgtuniversitygurgaon/posts/934327646730901>